

The Daguerreian Society TradeFair

*Saturday, November 3, 2007
Kansas City Marriott Country Club Plaza
4445 Main Street
Kansas City, Missouri*

*Featuring
America's Largest Venue for Buying and Selling
Daguerreotypes*

- Daguerreotypes
- Ambrotypes
- Tintypes
- CDVs
- Cabinet Cards
- Stereo Views
- Photos of all kinds
- Photographic Books

Open to the Public

- Sat. Nov. 3, 2007 10:00- 4:00
- Admission $5 at the door
- Free admission with symposium registration

- 6' Dealer tables $80 each
- Dealer set-up 9:00-10:00 AM

Presented in conjunction with the Daguerreian Society Symposium Nov. 1-4. Come for the Trade Fair and join us for the symposium featuring lectures on the history and art of the daguerreotype.

On display at the nearby Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art will be magnificent daguerreotypes and other early 19th century photographs from one of the nation's finest collections of American photography. Many of these treasures have never before been on public display. Come join us for a weekend of fun in Kansas City!

For More Information on the TradeFair or the Daguerreian Society Symposium visit the web site: <http://www.daguerre.org/> or call (412) 343-5525